JATO DYNAMICS APPOINTS NEW COUNTRY MANAGER FOR POLAND

JATO Dynamics, the world's leading provider of automotive data and intelligence, has appointed Andrzej Halarewicz as country manager for Poland. Mr. Halarewicz will be responsible for the sales and support of local customers as well as developing JATO's business in the region.

"Andrzej has detailed knowledge of our customer base as well as decades of experience in the Polish automotive sector, making him the ideal person to lead our local business," said Evangelos Hadjistavrou, Regional General Manager, at JATO Dynamics. "Poland is an important part of JATO's future plans and Andrzej will be central in driving and growing this business."

Mr. Halarewicz has spent his entire professional career in the automotive business, including senior management positions at Elit Polska, which trades spare parts for cars and LCVs, and later Protyl, a specialist supplier of heavy truck and trailer parts, where he helped set up subsidiaries in Ukraine and Lithuania.

Mr. Halarewicz has also held a variety of managerial positions at Fiat Auto, leading teams in the logistics, network development and fleet leasing departments, before becoming Commercial Operations Director.

"The car market in Poland is going from strength to strength, and the Central and Eastern European market is currently the most dynamic in Europe," commented Mr. Halarewicz. "This is a hugely exciting time to be joining JATO and I'm looking forward to the challenges of the role."

Mr. Halarewicz graduated in Economics in 1988 from the Academy of Economics in Katowice. He is married and has three children.
